

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

TIMOTHY W. STORMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 19-580

KOHL'S DEPARTMENT STORES, INC.

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Timothy W. Stormes, by counsel, and files this Complaint against Kohl's Department Stores, Inc., and alleges and avers as follows:

1. Plaintiff, Timothy W. Stormes, is a resident of Lawrence County, Ohio and resides at 506 Lane Street, Coal Grove, Ohio 45638. Plaintiff allegedly owes a consumer debt to Kohl's Department Stores, Inc ("Kohl's"). The collection of said debt is the subject of this action.
2. Defendant, Kohl's Department Store Inc. is a corporation with its principle place of business in Wisconsin which does business in the state of Ohio. Kohl's is a creditor of the Plaintiff.
3. Original jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S. Code § 1331 as this Complaint raises federal questions pursuant to the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227 (the "TCPA").
4. With few exceptions that include calls made for emergency purposes and calls made with prior express consent, the TCPA makes it unlawful to make any call to a cellular telephone using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice.
5. After the Plaintiff allegedly became in arrears upon Plaintiff's consumer account with Kohl's, Kohl's began to engage in collection of such indebtedness by telephone and mail.

6. Kohl's consistently used an auto-dialing capable device and/or an artificial or prerecorded voice message in making calls to the Plaintiff on his cellular telephone.

7. The Plaintiff retained attorney Ben Sheridan of Klein, Sheridan and Glazer to represent Plaintiff's interest in connection with the consumer debt for which Kohl's contended the Plaintiff became in arrears.

8. Thereafter, on June 16, 2015, the Plaintiff mailed a letter to the Defendant advising the Defendant that he had retained an attorney, and further provided the Defendant with the name, address, and telephone number of his attorney.

9. Plaintiff further expressly requested in his letter that the Defendant absolutely stop calling him and that any future calls should be direct to his attorney. Plaintiff also specified the numbers for which Defendant was advised to stop calling.

10. Plaintiff does not recall ever providing consent for Kohl's to call his cellular telephone. However, to the extent such consent was implied or otherwise provided, the Plaintiff, in the above-described letter, unambiguously removed the Defendant's authorization to call him at any number, including his cellular phone.

11. Thereafter, Defendant continued to utilize an automated dialing capable system to cause telephone calls to be placed to the Plaintiff on his cellular telephone.

12. The Defendant maintains records of each call placed to the Plaintiff by date, time called, duration of call, the identity of the Defendant's employee and notes or codes placed upon such record by the Defendant's employees. Such records will reflect that the Defendant placed numerous telephone calls to the Plaintiff's cellular telephone number after any consent to call was expressly revoked.

COUNT I

VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

13. The Plaintiff incorporates the previous paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
14. The Defendant used a predictive or other automated dialer system to call the Plaintiff on his cell phone.
15. The predictive or automated dialer system resulted in numerous calls being placed by the Defendant to the Plaintiff's cell phone.
16. The Plaintiffs removed any consent that may have existed to call the Plaintiff's cell phone by letter dated June 16, 2015.
17. Plaintiff provided the Defendant with Plaintiff's cell phone number(s) along with other relevant numbers so Defendant could easily update its records and set its system to do not call.
18. Nevertheless, Defendant continued to call Plaintiff's cell phone by using an automated dialer device.
19. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Defendant has repeatedly violated the TCPA 47 USCS § 227(b)(1).
20. The Defendant's violations of the TCPA were willful as the Plaintiff first in writing and then verbally upon answering unwanted calls, expressly removed his consent to call his cell phone, and the Defendant ignored him.
21. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiff has been annoyed, inconvenienced, harassed, bothered, upset, angered, harangued and otherwise was caused emotional distress.

DEMAND FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff demands from the Defendant:

- (a) General or actual damages;
- (b) $500 per violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act as provided for in in 47 USCS § 227(b)(3)(B);
- (c) $1,500 per violation of the TCPA to the extent the violations are found to be willful under 47 USCS § 227(b)(3)(C);
- (d) Attorney's fees and costs pursuant to the TCPA; and
- (e) Such other relief as the Court shall deem just and proper under the attendant circumstances.
